European Immigration

A Sourcebook

Edited by Anna Triandafyllidou, Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP), Greece and Ruby Gropas, Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP), Greece

'This book provides an up-to-date and often lively account of immigration in all 25 countries of the European Union. There are still enormous difficulties of comparison arising from the mutual unintelligibility of competing definitions and incommensurate statistics. However, the editors and authors have dealt with these problems confidently and imaginatively. The balance between established and emerging scholars is also impressive. The result is that in just about every country study – including those I know well – I discovered new insights and information.' – Robin Cohen, University of Oxford, UK

Who are Europe's immigrants? This innovative volume provides a comprehensive overview of the immigration situation in all 25 EU countries. Each chapter follows a common structure, allowing direct comparisons to be made between countries. The chapters conclude with a critical assessment of the present migration situation of the country in question and its future prospects.
