

ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE IN THE EUROZONE & THE EU: DRAWING LESSONS FROM THE CRISIS

CAPE SOUNIO,
ATHENS, GREECE,
10-13 JUNE 2010

AGENDA

Lifelong Learning Programme

With the support of the Lifelong Learning Programme,
Jean Monnet Actions of the European Union
Education, Audiovisual & Culture Executive Agency

Economic Governance in the Eurozone and the EU: Drawing lessons from the crisis

Cape Sounion, Greece
10-13 June 2010

AGENDA

Thursday 10 June 2010

Arrival of participants

Friday 11 June 2010

9.00 – 9.15 Welcome and introduction

Loukas Tsoukalis, ELIAMEP & University of Athens

Jean Pisani-Ferry, Université Paris-Dauphine & Bruegel, Brussels

9.15 – 11.15 Session 1: How did Europe cope with the first phase of the crisis?

Chair: Federico Fubini, Corriere della Sera, Rome

“Financial regulation”

Donato Masciandaro, Bocconi University, Milan

“The new Member States”

Daniel Daianu, National School for Political Studies and Public Administration (SNSPA), Bucharest

Followed by discussion

11.15- 11.45 Coffee break

11.45 – 14.00 Session 2: How is Europe coping with the current phase of the crisis?

Chair: Margaritis Schinas, BEPA, Brussels

“How to deal with rising sovereign debt?”

Laurence Boone, Barclays Capital, London

“North-South Asymmetry in the eurozone”

Nikos Christodoulakis, University of Economics and Business, Athens

“Internal adjustment in the euro-zone”

David A. Vines, University of Oxford

“Dealing with competitiveness”

Guntram Wolff, Economic and Financial Affairs DG European Commission, Brussels

Followed by discussion

14.00- 15.30 Lunch

15.30 – 17.30 Session 3: The politics of crisis management: common institutions and national policies

Chair: Lord Liddle, Policy Network, London

“Are common institutions being marginalized?”

Daniela Schwarzer, SWP, Berlin

“The role of Germany redefined? Economic and political dimensions”

Manfred Neumann, University of Bonn

Wolfgang Proissl, Bruegel, Brussels

“The EU and the IMF: a new relationship?”

André Sapir, ULB & Bruegel, Brussels

Followed by discussion

17.30- 18.00 Coffee break

18.00 – 19.30 Session 4: Political and social consequences of the crisis

Chair: Olaf Cramme, Policy Network, London

“Social Europe: The end of an era?”

Anton Hemerijck, Free University Amsterdam

“Social policies after the crisis”

Iain Begg, LSE, London

Followed by discussion

Saturday 12 June 2010

9.15 – 11.00 Session 5: Adjustment in the Euroarea

Chair: Pervenche Berès, MEP

“Fiscal policies in debt ridden countries”

Carlos Mulas Granados, IDEAS, Madrid

“Risks and opportunities of eurozone enlargement”

Zsolt Darvas, Bruegel, Brussels

Followed by discussion

11.00- 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 13.00 Session 6: Economic Governance in the Monetary Union

Chair: Loukas Tsoukalis, University of Athens & ELIAMEP

“The shape of economic governance”

Peter Bofinger, German Council of Economic Experts & University of Würzburg

“The shape of economic governance”

Jean Pisani-Ferry, Université Paris-Dauphine & Bruegel, Brussels

“The debate about political union”

Antonio Missiroli, BEPA, European Commission, Brussels

Followed by discussion

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.00 Keynote speech by Mr. George Papaconstantinou, Minister of Finance, Greece

15.00 – 17.00 Session 7: Concluding roundtable: EMU in the new phase of integration?

Chair: Constantine Papadopoulos, Hellenic Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Athens

Panelists: Jean Pisani-Ferry, André Sapir, Loukas Tsoukalis

Followed by discussion

Sunday 13 June 2010

Departure of participants