

Invitation

The Mediterranean Programme of the Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP) is organising an online discussion on:

The War in Ukraine and the Eastern Mediterranean: Challenges and Opportunities for a regional energy market

During the discussion, speakers will focus on the impact of Russia's war on Ukraine for the Eastern Mediterranean's energy potential. Will this conflict ease the tendencies of dispute in the East Med and propel a connected energy market which can serve the countries of the region, the EU and the international energy markets? Would gas remain untapped or will it be twinned with renewable energy sources to meet SDGs and EU Green Deal's goals?

Speakers:

Michael Harari, Amb. (ret.); Researcher, The Israeli Institute for Regional Foreign Policies (MITVIM)

Gun Kut, Associate Professor, Bogazici University, Istanbul

Constantine Levoyannis, Senior Researcher, Mediterranean Program, ELIAMEP; Head of EU Affairs, Nel Hydrogen, Brussels

Katerina Sokou, Journalist, Kathimerini; Nonresident Senior Fellow, Atlantic Council, Washington D.C.

Moderator: Cleopatra Kitti, Senior Policy Advisor, ELIAMEP; Founder, The Mediterranean Growth Initiative, Nicosia

The event will be held in English on Wednesday 8 June 2022, at 16:00-17:30 (EEST)/ 15:00-16:30 (CEST).

Live streaming will be available on the ELIAMEP website and on ELIAMEP's official accounts on Facebook and YouTube.
