

Invitation

The Hellenic Foundation for European and Foreign Policy (ELIAMEP) and the Istanbul Policy Center (IPC) are organizing an online discussion on:

Greece and Turkey: Views of Each Other- Wave III: Unpacking the results of the third opinion poll on the bilateral relations between Greece and Turkey

In May 2021, ELIAMEP and IPC ran the third of a series of opinion surveys carried out simultaneously in Greece and Turkey. The “Research Programme on the Bilateral Relations Between Greece and Turkey,” which is supported by diaNEOsis, seeks to map the perceptions and attitudes of the peoples of Greece and Turkey about each other. This online discussion will begin with a presentation of the new set of results which -among others- shed light on public opinion views of Russia’s invasion of Ukraine in both countries, and then continue. It will conclude with an exploration of the direction that the project’s future surveys might follow. The presentation of the results will be followed by a panel on the effect of Russia’s invasion of Ukraine on regional politics.

The event will be held in English and Greek (with simultaneous interpretation), on Tuesday June 21, 2022, at 10:30 – 13:45.

The agenda is available below.

Live streaming will be available on the ELIAMEP website
and on ELIAMEP’s official YouTube channel.
