

One of the most prominent experts in European Studies, Hellen Wallace holds the chair of Centennial Professor at the European Institute, London School of Economics & Political Science. She has served as Director of Robert Schuman Centre at the European Institute, Florence (2001-2006), Director (and Co-Director) at the European Institute, University of Sussex (1999-2001). She has been highly honored by the French and British states and in 2000 she was elected Associate of the British Academy. Moreover, she has taken over important advisory responsibilities in European Organization issues, while from 2007 to 2008 she was an Advisor to the Commissioner for EU Enlargement, Oli Rehn.

Her rich research work focuses on European Integration and includes the following most recent publications: The Council of Ministers of the European Union, 2nd Edition, Palgrave, 2006 (with Fiona Hayes-Renshaw)· Visions, Votes and Vetoes: Reassessing the Luxembourg Compromise 40 Years On, PIE - Peter Lang, 2006 (co-editor with Jean-Marie Palayret και Pascaline Winand)· Unveiling the Council of Ministers: Games Governments Play in Brussels. Palgrave 2008 (with Daniel Naurin). The distinguished British Academic visits our country with an honorary fellowship from Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation.